All Specified Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time.
- F. The designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade for a minimum duration of six months. The compliance officer may be empowered to grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these regulations. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

- G. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
- H. In case of subscription in the primary market (initial public offers), the above mentioned person shall hold their investments for a minimum period of 30 days.
- I. Provided that the holding period would commence when the securities are actually allotted.
- J. The Compliance Officer may waive off the holding period in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

❖ PREVENTION OF MISUSE OF “UNPUBLISHED PRICE SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Employees and connected persons designated on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons") in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

A. TRADINGPLAN:

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

B. TRADING PLANSHALL:

- a) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- b) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- c) entail trading for a period of not less than twelvemonths;
- d) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- e) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- f) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations. However, he shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of this plan.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

However, the trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

Further, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if any unpublished price sensitive information in possession of insider at the time of formulation of plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.
